

Lois Linzey Cardwell

October 22, 1940 - January 10, 2014

Lois “Grams” Cardwell was born to the late Henry and Thelma Linzey on October 22, 1940, in Newark, NJ. On Friday, January 10 2014, the Lord sent an angel to tell Lois, “Job well done my good and faithful servant.”

Grams, as she was affectionately called by friends and family, was educated in the Newark school system and graduated from New Brunswick High School. In 1960, she married the love of her life, Robert R. Cardwell. To this union two daughters were born.

In 2003, Lois retired from Bristol-Myer Squibb after many years of service. Following her retirement, Lois dedicated her life to her family, which included their sporting events, graduations, vacations, cotillions and various activities in which her grandchildren participated.

Over the years, “Grams” opened her home to all of her adopted grands and loved each of them as her own. She could be found sitting on the porch laughing with them or enjoying one of the many backyard barbeques with her dog, Hennesey. Lois embraced every moment and lived life to the fullest.

She was predeceased by her parents, Henry and Thelma Linzey, and her husband, Robert R. Cardwell.

Cheryl Smith and Lynne Smith and one son-in-law, Raymond Smith; five grandchildren: Seab, Raenisha, Raymond, Brandon, RaeLynne; three great-grandchildren: Zaniya, Aiden and Nahsyr; Goddaughter, Hope Anderson; her dearest sister-friends, Mazxine Drakefod and Lois Schenk; numerous nieces, nephews, sister-friends and a host of relatives.
