

Mabel Joan King

January 16, 1924 - September 11, 2014

Mabel Joan (O'Neal) King, 90, of Middletown Twp., passed away on Thursday, Sept. 11, 2014, at home surrounded by her loving family. She was born Jan. 16, 1924 in Middletown to the late Rev. Jordon N. and Adelaide C. O'Neal. Mabel attended Middletown Twp. school system and Brookdale College where she received an Associate Degree in Education.

As a devoted mother, Mabel was actively involved in her children's education and extracurricular activities. She was a Cub Scout Leader and a Girl Scout Leader. She was the Sunday school Superintendent at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Tinton Falls. Mabel was an advocate for education and working with children. She worked for Monmouth County Head Start and also for Brookdale Community College as a Head Teacher.

Mabel had a loving enthusiasm for life. She loved the Lord, and her greatest passions were praying, reading the Bible, singing gospel music, and participating in programs at local churches. In addition, Mabel loved baking at holidays, working around her yard, spending time with her family, and assisting children in the community with reading and homework.
