

Maezelmaa Phells

April 8, 1931 - May 23, 2016

Maezelma was born in Normanagee, TX, the only child of Oliver and Lillian Cregg. She passed away on May 23, 2016 She moved to New Jersey in 1952, met and married husband Curtis, and they celebrated 51 years together until his death in 2004. As the wife of a career soldier, she managed to successfully pack up the family, changing home addresses three times in five years before they settled in Edison where she remained until her death.

She was a graduate of secretarial school, and a nurse by profession. She left St. Peters Hospital in New Brunswick and became one of the first employees of JFK Hospital in Edison, and spent the next two decades attending patients with skill and compassion.

She remained active throughout the years, and was involved in organizations from the Cub Scouts to the Edison High School Parents Club and Friends of Plays In The Park. She was a long-time active member of Grace Reformed Church in Edison. She was a past recipient of the Black Achievers of Business and Education award.

In addition to her husband, she was predeceased by her son, Gregory. Surviving are her son Kendall, daughter in-law Michelle, grandson Derek, granddaughter Vanessa and a host of relatives and friends who were truly blessed to have known her.
