

Mariama "Mama" Sisay Kamara

October 10, 2016 - November 8, 2016

Mariama Sillah Sisay Kamara was born in Makeni, Sierra Leone on October 10, 1953 to Achaji Osmarie Sillah and Teneba Jalloh.

She migrated to the United States 45 years ago filled with hopes and dreams. Viewed as a pioneer and hero to so many both here and abroad. She beat the odds as a first generation immigrant with hard work and determination. She graduated from Lincoln High School and attended Hudson County Community College in Jersey City, NJ. She also worked in the Healthcare Industry for over 40 years. Throughout all the obstacles and challenges of life, she managed to raise children, send them to college and financially support her relatives abroad.

She is survived by her husband, Haran Kamara; two daughters: Zainah Fatima Sisay and Yenki Sisay; a son, Omar Osmar Sisay; eight grandchildren: Zaria Norma Kirkland, Joseph Atieba Williams, Jordan Ojay Williams, Joshua Sulaiman Williams, Omar Osman Sisay, Jr., Jacob Chemor Williams and Zyielle Powell and Bria Mariama Sisay; several brothers and sisters, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. She also leaves behind to mourn a large extended family that includes Jalloh, Conteh, Sesay, Daramy, Habie, Jabbie, Tambadou, Kamara and Balla.
