“ Twenty-odd years ago, I spent every day for several months volunteering (atoning for my indiscretions) at Elijah's Promise, working for Melvin. I learned so much in a short time. I've long since moved away, but during this pandemic, thinking of places I could donate to to help the most people, I remembered my time with Melvin at Elijah's Promise. I stumbled onto this page and I am sorry to learn of his passing. To me he was as kind and generous as he was to the patrons. He made a difference to me and I remember him fondly.
