August 25, 1960 - May 29, 2013

Normarie A. Lindsey passed away in her sleep on Wednesday, May 15, 2013 in her home where she resides in North Brunswick, NJ.

Born in Middlesex, NJ she was a lifetime resident. She was formerly a Senior Analyst for Johnson and Johnson Corporation in New Brunswick for 26 years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Lincoln Gardens in Somerset. Normarie was known by many nick names Ric, Slick Rick, Pretty Ricky, Dew and I'm quite sure there were more. Normarie was well known and loved by many. Normarie was very intelligent, smart, caring and we all know funny. To sum it all up she was real. Normarie was so devoted to her kids, she would climb mountains if she had to, and her son was her blessing, joy and her rock. One of many hobbies Normarie enjoyed was soft ball. She was formerly a member of the team called "Mean Machines".

She was predeceased by her parents, Ernest and Altamease Lindsey and two sisters, Sharon Lindsey and Bonnie Aarrington. Survivors include her two sons Victor Lindsey and Keon Fields of North Brunswick NJ; four sisters, Vernita "Cookie" Lindsey (Kenneth Heuston) of Somerset, Maxine Sims and Virginia Singleton of Tampa, FL and Loretta Burns of Texas; two brothers, Ernest Lindsey, Jr. (Linda Morris) of New Brunswick and Robert Lindsey of Jamaica. One grandson Davonte Lindsey of Somerset. Host of Nieces and Nephews, Uncles, Cousins and one which is like a sister Cassandra Hardee of New Brunswick, NJ.
