“ I will never forget the sweet smile and loving heart of Cousin Pat. Pat's mom, Aunt Lillian, was the sister of my dad, James Hooper Sr., and my Godmother. I remember visiting Aunt Lillian and my cousins when the family lived in New Brunswick. Pat was a beautiful and sweet teenager who I looked up to. Although the years and distance separated us, memories of her kind spirit will forever be in my heart. My prayers for comfort are going up for all my cousins: her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. What a blessing her legacy has left this family and world!
In loving memory,
Cousin Diane (Hooper) Winston
