“ Dear Patrick,

I am glad to have met you. You are approachable and supportive and helped make a great difference in my life.

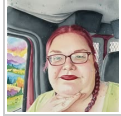

I am glad you reached out to me and showed me you cared. I am so happy to have met your daughter Jessica as well and to find that she shares the great qualities that you have. I am missing you and hope my note here reaches you somehow. I just want to let you know you had and still have a lot of meaning in people's lives and I thank you!

I know Jessica, the many people that you have left a mark on, and I will make sure to carry on those same qualities for the better.

*Your Friend,
Jackie*

“ I spent many years with this man as part of my family. Hiding out, being angry, feeling alone....but through it all he was there to offer a hug, some bit of crazy advice, a smile, and NEVER once did he ever tell me I wasn't welcome in his home no matter the time of night. I could count on him to open the door, see me in tears, put an arm around my shoulder, tell me it was ok, and let me in to go to sleep..stopping to call my mother and let her know I was alive and ok. I will forever miss him and know he will be watching over his family no matter his beliefs because he loved them and would do whatever he had to make sure they were alright and happy the best he could.

Prayers and Condolences from my family to yours and may you find peace through this all. I love you Jessica you my Sista from another mister and will always be in my heart and prayers.

Thank you for not listening to me when I said you didn't have to come. I don't know how I could of coped without you. Andrew was such a kind and helpful surprise. It's a true testament to what an amazing mother you turned out to be. Dad was always so proud of you and he too will be watching over his extended family in Tenn. Always my sister and forever my friend. <3

“Pat was a really cool guy who always felt more like a friend then a friends father. I remember him being silly when I would go over jess's house as a teenager and as of late I would enjoy when we were able to chat. He was a super smart guy and a knower of odd facts. Also remember tinkering was his thing to do! Always had a cigar when we were younger. May jess and Brandon find peace and solace knowing that Pat will always be present In their hearts.

Friend to many and always ready with fatherly advice to all. He cared for all my friends like they were his own. My ownly wish was he had more time to see what an amazing mother and talented woman you turned out to be. Thank you for your kind words I know apart of him will live on though Brandon and myself and I hope to continue to make him proud of us.

Thank you very much Aretha. I know dad looked forward with his visits with you. You always took the time to listen to his stories and that meant a lot to him.
