

Pauline Copeland

October 3, 1939 - June 15, 2025

Pauline Copeland of Monroe Township, NJ died June 15, 2025. Funeral services were held Friday, June 27, 2025, at Anderson Funeral Service, 201 Sandford Street, New Brunswick. Rev. Tina Adams, Ministerial Associate from Cathedral International officiate and eulogized.

Pauline Copeland was born October 3, 1939, in Rossville, Georgia to the late Paul E. Copeland and Minnie Copeland. She entered into eternal peace on June 15, 2025.

Pauline was educated in the Walker County, Georgia school system and graduated from Hill High School in LaFayette, GA. She relocated to Perth Amboy, New Jersey and spent thirty-two years employed by the Woodbridge Board of Education as a senior clerk in the office of transportation. She became a faithful member of the historic Second Baptist Church in 1963. Pauline strongly adhered to her faith throughout her life and in 1995 she recommitted her faith at Cathedral International in Perth Amboy, NJ.

Pauline, affectionately known as Polly amongst her family and friends, was a cherished daughter, a loving eldest sister, a devoted mother and grandmother, and a spiritual beacon to her grandsons, nieces and nephews. Blessed with a beautiful singing voice, her vibrant soul shined through whenever she lifted her voice in song. A beautiful spirit, a guiding light, Pauline peacefully passes on her role as the matriarch of her family.

Pauline was predeceased in death by her parents and her brother, Richard L. Copeland.

Pauline leaves to cherish her memories her daughter, Danita (Underwood) Graves of East Windsor, NJ; grandson Derek Underwood (Natasha) and great-grandson Najir Underwood, of Charlotte, NC; sisters, Sonja Faye Copeland and Edith Davis of Willingboro, NJ; niece and nephews, Stefanie Davis (Charles Wells) of Somerset, NJ, Terrance Copeland and James “Monty” Davis of Willingboro, NJ; and a host of grand nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.
