“ Phyllis was such a blessing to the George Wilton and Hannah Parson-Glover families (including the Braxtons and Ganes) in Trenton, NJ. She likewise was the same at any family event, even when coming to Pittsburgh for a reunion -- she would gather her family members together and make sure all of their monies were turned in and information submitted in a very timely fashion.

I shared with her in the planning, programming and eulogizing of her father, Lawrence T. Jackson. It was a pleasure to participate with her and the family during that difficult time.

She will be sorely missed by all.
