

Pitman "Jabo" Hemingway

August 10, 1929 - March 20, 2020

Pitman "Jabo" Hemingway, 90, of Somerset, died at home on March 20, 2020. Born in Conway, SC. Formerly of Jersey City. He was Owner & Operator of the former Ebony Restaurant in Somerset. A member of First Baptist Church of Lincoln Gardens, Somerset. Predeceased by parents, Joe and Lilly Hemingway, wife, Lula Mae "Sweet", a son, Kenneth Bruce Hemingway, 5 siblings, Florence Gail Graves, Nettie Bell Dozier, Buster and Joe Lee Hemingway and Mollie Preslie. Surviving are 3 children, Vincent Allen Hemingway, Valerie Highsmith and Pittman Greg Hemingway, 10 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren and 1 sister, Pollie Harrington.

Tribute Wall

“ Pitman "Jabo" Hemingway

September 22, 2022 at 02:41 PM

“ Sincere condolence to the Children & the Siblings of Mr Hemingway. He was kind gentleman. Often I saw him taking his daily walks down Franklin Blvd, {2018-2019}, through the 'Grove'. He truly missed his' dear wife and now thankfully he is resting with her. Amen.

Sincere regards to the extended family, too.

Evangelist Lillie. Foy & Family

Somerset, New Jersey.

Evangelist Lillie Foy - April 03, 2020 at 06:11 PM