“ Lil Randy,

Man... I still can't believe I'm writing this to you. I wish I had more time, more moments, more chances to just sit with you and talk. Even when we didn't see each other as much as we should have, I was always asking about you. You were never far from my mind. I hate that I didn't get to say this while you were here but you mattered to me, more than I probably ever showed. As hard as this is, I hold on to what we believe... that this isn't the end. God promises us something greater than this life, and I know you're in His presence now at peace, whole, and home. I take comfort knowing this isn't goodbye forever... it's just a "see you later." Until we meet again, cuzzo. Save me a spot.

Love you always- Stephen

“ Little Randy, I'm so sorry we didn't stay close over the years. I wish I had gotten to know you more, but I carry love for you in my heart. I know we weren't close but I still feel the pain and I promise to hold our family closer and not let distance keep us apart anymore. I know you are in heaven with God, at peace. We may never understand why you were taken so soon, but I know your life was filled with love, and you leave behind your children and family as a reflection of that. We've got your family, always. I love you, and until we meet again.

“ To my brother, my best friend, and my guardian angel:

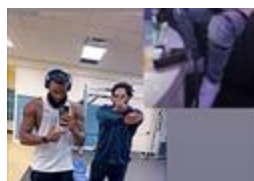

Today marks a day I never thought would come. You were the best brother anyone could ask for, and you showed me so much during our time together. Though my heart aches, I still trust in God's plan, so I won't dare question it.

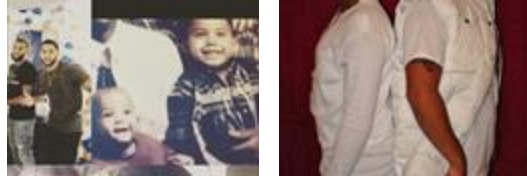

While you were here on this earth, boy did you make an enormous impact. You taught me the ins and outs of life, both in the streets and the books. You often told me how proud you were of me, but I never expressed enough how proud I was of you. I still remember those days when you called me to hit the gym. You couldn't have known how many times I tried to make excuses, but you always showed up and made me go. "Lets get this money, EAT DONT GET ATE"

I love you for that, and I promise to be in that gym, working hard and making you proud. You were not only the best brother but also the best uncle. Aryannah and Anthony always lit up with joy whenever they heard that Uncle Randy was coming. You were the only one willing to take them to the park, regardless of how busy you were, and you would sneak in candy to the kids no matter what i say but i wasnt surprised u wasnt slick randy ! But its ok only cause you loved them.

We will miss you, bro. I love you more than anything in this world, and I will continue to have my conversations with you because I know you're listening! Please walk with me through life. I can't believe I am writing this, but I will always be your brother's keeper. I will fulfill everything for you, bro. Everything you started, I got you!

Until we meet again, my big brother for life.
