

Richard Lee Mingle, Jr.

February 18, 1936 - July 1, 2016

Richard Lee Mingle, Jr., son of the late Rose and the Rev. Richard Lee Mingle, Sr., was born February 18, 1936, in Augusta, Georgia. He departed this life on Friday, July 1, 2016, at Capital Health Medical Center, Hopewell.

He attended Lucy Laney High School there. He relocated to Washington, DC, for a short time, then resided in Trenton, NJ area for over 50 years.

He was employed by Ford Motor Company and retired after serving 37 years. Affectionately called "Pop," Richard was a vibrant, outgoing person who loved cooking, traveling, dancing, attending concerts and socializing with friends.

Predeceased by his parents, he leaves to cherish fond memories: his wife, Ruth Mingle; four children, Anthony Craig Ealey (Yvonne) of San Antonio, Texas, Carlos Maurice Ealey, Keidrick "KeKe" Davis of Trenton, and Andrew Mingle of Detroit, MI; two siblings, Theresa Mingle and Samuel Mingle of Maryland; special cousin Robin Irvin who visited often; six grandchildren, one great-grandson, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
