Please except my deepest condolences. when I spoke to him three weeks before I got that devastating phone call,I was blessed to have the oppertunity to talk to him for a full hour on the phone he shared so much with me :) then the call from Deborah it felt like my heart fell to my feet :(I loved my cousin,very much he wasn't just my mother's first cousin, he was like a brother as well, Her Mother's Sister Aunt Adeliade treated her as if she was her daughter :) he was a mentor to me and my siblings. {May he continue to rest in perfect paradise} gone but will never ever be forgotten One thing in our conversation was he wanted his sibilings to get along, and be a family!! Let's all put our old diffrences behind us all and love each other, no matter what. We are A Family, and we all should think way and stop hurting and back biting one another. tomorrow is not promised o any of us!! God Bless Our entire Family..
