Sharon and I worked together at Baby Superstore(then became Babies R US)- she was such a hard working person, that always gave time to customers, and co-workers and always, always had you laughing. Years later, I ran into her at RWJ and just hugged her.. She loved helping people, and we talked about her kids, and how proud, truly proud of the people they had become. Seemed at my hardest times being at RWJ she was there-her smile brought me peace and strength- I truly felt blessed having Sharon in my life, part of my journey. Sharon, I can only imagine, your face, in Gods arms- He loved you so. Till we meet again. Ann Rooney

“ Charisse, words can not express the joy we share in Mrs Sharp classroom. We had a great time sharing each other friendship. When we run into each other it was always like we've pick up where we left off. You would always laugh and smile when we see each. Charisse, we shall meet up again. We shall meet again. Rest Easy Love you! My Friend. 🙏💕💕
