“ My condolences to the Silva family for this tremendous loss. Losing someone you've loved is never easy. Sylvester was a loving husband and father. He loved his family till the end. I pray that as time goes on your memories of him last forever. God's word says, weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. So in due time, and that time will be different for each of you, I pray that when joy comes, you feel that warm embrace of your loved one and that it brings you comfort.

For Nate, your dad loved you and was very proud of you. Sending God's love and compassion as he knows what you're going thru.

Love you all,

Kim Currie
