

Sylvester Williams

February 26, 1953 - November 5, 2022

Sylvester Williams was born in Andersonville, Georgia on February 26, 1953, to the late Ozie Lee McWhorter-Williams and Richard Williams. He attended Northeast Elementary School in Americus, Georgia, and received his High School Diploma from Union High School in Leslie, Georgia.

After graduating High School in 1971, Sylvester relocated to Trenton, NJ. He worked at the Cooper Hill Country Club located in Flemington, NJ, where he developed exceptional golfing skills. In 1973, Sylvester moved to New Brunswick, NJ where he worked at Quaker Oats and Continental Bakery.

Sylvester was a faithful, dedicated man of God. He was a formal member of El Bethel Baptist Church in Trenton, NJ under the leadership of Rev. Dr. John A. Gaines. Presently he is a member under the leadership of Bishop James E. Gaines of Better Life formally, El Bethel Baptist Church. He was a Sunday school teacher (the best). He was an ordained deacon and member of the Missionary Society.

His favorite hobbies were fishing with his sons, singing, and playing the guitar. He also sang in a few gospel groups. If people ask him for something, he would respond by saying, he charges $200.

Sylvester worked as a truck driver for 35 years. He worked for Pathmark and Automatic Roller of New Jersey. He never missed a day from work for which he received many awards. He was an outstanding employee.

Sylvester was preceded in death by his parents, Ozie Lee McWhorter-Williams and Richard Williams, his older brother, Ronnie, twin brother, Rochester and younger sister, Essielene. Those who shared the joys of his life with him and will forever cherish his memories are his loving wife, Korion Williams. Out of that union, he has 4 sons, Christopher, Cranford, NJ, Fred (Tommy) Bridgette, Somerset, NJ; Sylvester Sr./Chanell, Palmdale, CA, Karon, Somerset, NJ; his sister, Ethelene (Ron) Virginia Beach, VA; nephew Travis/Gwen, Andersonville, GA; 16 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren, also included is his best friend (Bob) and a host of relatives and special friends.
