

Thomas Johnson, Jr.

October 1, 1936 - March 8, 2016

Thomas, "Tommie" Johnson, Jr., transitioned from life to eternal rest on Tuesday, March 8, 2016.

Tommie was born October 1, 1936 to the late Thomas Johnson, Sr. and Georgia Strickland Johnson in Loris, SC. Tommie grew up on his parent's huge farm and attended the Public Schools of South Carolina. As a young man, Tommy relocated to Trenton, NJ and was employed by Hun School and later the Lawrenceville Prep School from which he retired after more than 30 years of service.

Tommie was a fun-loving person who met no strangers. He was full of expressions that would have you laughing for days. Fishing was his favorite pastime and after his retirement, he made the most of it. He could be found in the local fishing spots casting his line. He would ride his bike to fishing locations near his home and was not hesitant to take his bike on the bus to get to fishing spots further away. He loved to go on out-of-state fishing trips too and made many friends through his fishing expeditions. He also liked watching old movies. He would watch them over and over again and would get the same laughs each time. Tommie also had a favorite place to be and that was downtown Trenton on the corner of State and Broad Streets. If he did not answer his door or his phone when you called, he could usually be found downtown. He loved his family and would stay in touch.

Tommie was predeceased by his parents, six brothers and one sister.

Tommie leaves to cherish his precious memories: one brother, Rufus Earl Johnson of Conway, SC; one daughter, Ivy Chestnut of Columbia, SC; one son, Eddie of Loris, SC; a host of nieces and nephews: Linda and Valerie Johnson, James, Mackey, Harold and Larry Johnson (Mona), Antwanee Johnson-Page (Calvin), Anthony Johnson (Tasha), William (Peanut) Johnson, Mack (Baller) Murray, Maxine and Thomas Brooks, Angelica Brittingham-Davis and his caregivers Ida and Alton Payton and a host of cousins other relatives and friends.
