

Vivian Kabutey

February 16, 1963 - April 25, 2022

Vivian Kwejackie Kabutey, age 59, passed away peacefully on April 25, 2022, after a short battle with an illness. She was born February 16, 1963 in Tema, Ghana to Isaac Kwame Tetteh and Cecelia Adjirackor.

She married her longtime friend and love, Samuel Kabutey, in May of 1982. They went on to have 3 children; Roland Kabutey, Prince Kabutey and Esther Kabutey.

Vivian was very proud of her roots and loved people. Cheerfully gave to the needy and made people laugh through jokes. She also shared a love for cooking, feeding and humbly breaking bread with both family and strangers. For many years, Vivian operated her catering business and worked as a Health Care Assistant, until her demise. It suited her warmth and servant heart. She said she did it because she simply loved to make people happy and always used to say: "Do what's right and do what's good. Be kind and help others. The world can always use one more kind person, If you can take it one step further, please do it for the orphans".

Vivian was pre-deceased by Leonard Vincent Obeng, Cecilia Adjirackor, Lillian Tetteh. She is survived by her husband, Samuel Kabutey; children, Roland, Julius, Prince and Esther Kabutey.; father Isaac Tetteh; brothers, Jacob Tetteh, Leonard Obeng, Eric Charnortey Tetteh, Dickson Obeng and Albert Obeng; sisters, Irene Amoah, Leonie Obeng, Akyere, Nana Esi Kwansimah Kwawu, Anita Agyenim-Boateng and Ivy Tetteh; uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, in-laws and grandchildren.
