“ Hey Warren you had so many dreams n disappointments, however you were true to the gifts that God weaved in your spirit. I loved visiting you and cooking and when I noticed all your daily bread readings and post its for note taking it really inspired me. So in your new celestial youthful body in your long white robe you live forever. I bet you wouldn't come back if u could. To your mom please if you ever need to speak to a good hearted person call me. Natalie 973-380-3010

“ My deepest condolences to the Lacewell family. Warren and I attended Zion Hill Baptist Church together. We later connected after over 30 years. He was a caring man with an enormous heart. His faith in God was unshakable. He is loved and will be missed. Rest in Paradise Warren.

“ So sorry to hear about my good friend and backfield mate from Essex Catholic. "Lace" always looked out and brought the best out of me! I'll never forget how happy he was when I told him during my Freshman year that I was moving a few blocks away from him. Gone too soon....My sincere condolences go out to not only the Lacewell family, but to the EC family. R.I.P #34, love you my brother!
