“ May Billy rest in peace as he left behind a life well lived. I am the neighbor from Drake Avenue, Middlesex and I have fond memories of the Tillman family and of Billy as a loving husband and father. Neighbor forever, Jean Washington Robinson

“ My dear brother-in-law, affectionately known to all the family as Uncle Billy, was genuine, godly, faithful, and very, very wise. I always admired and appreciated his devotion to his family. He walked in godly wisdom and was respected by all.

Tonya, Carla, Bridgette and Greg...you all are blessed to have such an awesome father, role-model and guide. His influence in your lives is apparent, evidenced by the sound, well-adjusted children he raised! Proverbs 17:6 states, “Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.”

We will all miss Uncle Billy, but I take comfort in knowing that we will see him again.

I love you all!

Aunt Jean
